To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Ferrisfield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

BISHOP BISSELL confirmed seven persons as members of the Episcopal church at Chester, on the 5th inst.

NO. 13, STEAMBOAT TRAIN, on the central Division, leaving St. Albans at 4:15 a. m., and arriving at Burlington at 1:15 a. m., will not run after Saturday, September 12, 1868 during the season.

There will be no service in the Methodist E. Church of this place to-morrow, as the camp-meeting in Swanton continues over Sunday.

VAN AMBURGH'S MENAGERIE appeared in our streets this morning, at about half-past nine o'clock, and made fine show—the best we remember to have seen in a long while. An exhibition was given this afternoon, and a second will be given this evening on Fairfield Street, on grounds owned by Mr. W. Barton.

REAL ESTATE CHANGES.—The Methodist Society have sold their "Parsonage" adjoining the Episcopal Church in this village to the Episcopal Society for $2,500. The house is quite old, the grounds are pent up and there was no opportunity for the "Parsonage" to keep pace with the increasing wants and health of the Society, which was the occasion of the sale. The Methodist people have purchased a fine building lot in Congress, above High Street, where an elegant cottage is being erected for the future residence of their Minister. We are glad to notice this prosperity in the Society.

BASE BALL.—The Kearsage Club, of Concord, played a match game of base ball with a picked nine of Portsmouth, at Portsmouth, N. H., on Tuesday afternoon last. Messrs. C. W. Pierce and Loren Richardson, formerly members of St. Albans "Eagles," are now members of the Kearsage, and we are informed that they fully sustained their reputation as excellent players during this game. For want of time, only five "innings" were played, and the Concord club came off victorious by six runs. Our young friend, Mr. Dan. B. Robinson, of this place, "umpired" the game.

R. LESTER BARNEY, of Swanton, has bought the Marble Works of C. W. Green, Esq., of this place, and will carry on the business; those wanting anything in the marble line would do well to call on him.

SPECIMEN OF WINTER WHEAT.—The Brattleboro Phoenix says that Isaac Hines has shown them a specimen of winter wheat which he raised on his land, in that village, that looks remarkably well, plump and nice. On one and two-thirds acres of ground he has raised fifty three bushels. We call this pretty good farming.

OBITUARY.—William Gibson, late of Pomfret, died at the residence of his son-in-law, Austin J. Fox, in Angola, Indiana, on the 29th ult. The Woodstock Standard says: Mr. Gibson was born in Hopkinton, Mass., Sept. 20th, 1794, and removed to Pomfret at an early age. He represented the town in the Legislature in the years 1862 and 1863, and at various times killed most of the officers in the gift of the town. He was unanimously esteemed by his townsmen as a good Christian, a kind neighbor, and a conscientious, faithful citizen.

DEATH OF L. D. GILCHRIST.—Mr. L. D. Gilchrist, for the last twelve years General Baggage Master of the Vermont Central Railroad, died at Northfield, at three o'clock this morning, of fever, aged about 48 years. He leaves a wife and four children, resident at Northfield. Mr. Gilchrist was highly esteemed by all who knew him, and no man employed on the Vermont Central had more fully the confidence of the managers, as to his probity and fidelity.

BRATTLEBORO MELODEON COMPANY.—We understand that the Brattleboro Melodeon Company have disposed of their property in this village, to Riley Burdett & Co., of Chicago, Ill., and that five of the men who composed the company here have purchased an interest in the firm at Chicago, and will immediately remove to that city. The business of the Company at Chicago is in a prosperous condition, and rapidly increasing, and the addition of these skilful and experienced workmen will be an important accession. We are sorry to have any of our mechanics leave the village, but we have no doubt that the movement will be advantageous to them as well as to the Company to which they have linked their fortunes.—Brattleboro Phoenix.

THE ELEVENTH AT PLATTSBURGH.—Washington Engine Company, No. 1, without their "machine," accompanied by the Brigade Band, took passage on the River Queen, yesterday morning, for Plattsburgh. Leaving St. Albans at an early hour, they arrived at the Bay, fully an hour before the steam was gotten up on the Queen, but finally set sail at 7:15 a. m., and arrived at Plattsburgh at about 11:30 a. m., where they were received by Independent Engine Company No. 4, of Plattsburgh, and escorted to Witherell's Hotel. Dinner being over, a march was made to the base ball grounds, but, on account of the rain, there was no playing at the tournament until after our boys left for home. After taking tea with the Independents at Witherell's, the Washingtons put aboard of the steamer, and reached home about midnight. Although the weather was unpropitious and "giggled back" upon them, upon the whole, the Washingtons were quite well pleased with their day's entertainment, and returned well satisfied.

We are informed that the following base ball clubs were present at Plattsburgh to participate in the tournament: White Stockings, of Peru. Rough and Ready's, of Chazy. Stars, of Schuyler Falls. Frontiers, of Champlain. Auroras, of Plattsburgh. And three other clubs, with which our informant was unacquainted.

RICHFORD.—We are indebted to the Sentinel for the following items:—The Select School kept by Mr. C. G. Austin, opens with about 50 scholars.

The Richford Lodge, No. 81, I. O. of G. T., is constantly receiving accessions to its numbers. It meets every Friday evening. A new hall is being finished for the Lodge by G. J. Smith in Union Block. Meanwhile, by the courtesy of Missusquid Lodge, No. 9, F. & A. M., the Good Templars meet in the Masonic Hall.

We have received an abundance of rain this week, and there is no longer complaint of scarcity of water.

It will be recollected that Van Amburgh's Menagerie shows in this place next Tuesday. From all accounts, we judge the collection of animals is a very extensive one—such an one as we shall not have an opportunity of seeing again here very soon.

Mr. Amherst Stone addressed the Grant Club last Thursday evening.

COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.—Prof. J. H. Lansley, proprietor of the Rutland Commercial College, and also of the Commercial College of St. Albans, has purchased the Burlington Commercial College. He intends consolidating the St. Albans and Burlington Commercial Colleges, which will open under the title of the "Vermont Commercial College," at Burlington about the 1st of October. Mr. Lansley has the reputation, and that most deserved, of being one of the best managers of a Commercial College in our State. We wish him success in his increased field of labor.—Rutland Herald.

COUNTY FAIRS.—The annual fair of the Windham County Agricultural Society is to be held at Fayetteville, September 30 and October 1st.

The Caledonia County Agricultural Society hold their annual fair on the 29th and 30th of September and October 1st.

The twenty-third annual fair of the Windsor County Agricultural Society will be held at Woodstock on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, 23d, 24d, and 25th of September.

The Addison County fair will be held in Middlebury, October 7th and 8th. The Annual address will be delivered by Dr. Geo. B. Loring, President of the New England Agricultural Society.

THE TALLEST YET.—The editor of the Rutland Herald has been shown a stalk of sweet corn, grown on the lands of W. Y. Ripley, Esq., the present season, which measures 14 feet and 2 inches in length.

POSTS OF THE GRAND ARMY of the Republic have been established at Ludlow, Brattleboro, and Springfield.

The Camp Meeting on John Smith's grounds, in Swanton, did not fairly commence on Monday, on account of the rain, but since that day the meeting has moved off briskly, with a good attendance, and we hear, some remarkably good preaching from various gentlemen, among whom we may mention, Rev. Messrs. Spencer, Cole, Evans, Malcolm, Cobb, &c. There has been a good degree of interest manifested.

THE OX "GEN. GRANT."—The great ox, "General Grant," among the entries of fat cattle in our State Fair, and by far the most noticeable animal on the ground, was born in Avon, Livingston Co., N. Y., ten years ago, being then the property of a Mr. Meecher, of that place. He was drawn by his present owner, Mr. Carlos Pierce, of Stanstead, P. Q., at the Sanitary Fair, at New York, six years ago. He was kept on a farm for two years, till the war being at its most critical period, Mr. Pierce offered the ox as a prize to the Union General who should first enter Richmond, before the Presidential election in November of that year, 1864. But Richmond was not taken within the time, and on Mr. Lincoln's re-election, the ox was presented to him by Mr. Pierce. President Lincoln accepted the present, and in turn presented the ox to the Soldiers and Sailors Sanitary Fair at Boston, as his contribution. He was exhibited for two weeks, the proceeds amounting to $373, which amount was credited to Mr. Lincoln as his donation to the Fair. He was then raffled for, and drawn by a Mr. Thacher, of Roxbury, Mass., who kept and exhibited him as "the white elephant" for eight months. He was then sold by auction in Boston, and was repurchased by Mr. Pierce, for $850, to keep him from the hands of the butchers. He afterwards permitted him to be exhibited for the benefit of the Sanitary Fairs at Chicago, Baltimore, and Philadelphia, realizing for the objects of those Fairs, the handsome sum of $12,000. Since then he has been kept on Mr. Pierce's farm in Stanstead, leaving it only for exhibition at several Agricultural Fairs in Canada and the States. He is a very handsome animal, in the way of Bovine beauty; of light cream color; is seven-eighths grade Durham, and weighs four thousand pounds. He is the heaviest ox of which there is any authentic record, in any country. We are indebted for these facts to the courtesy of his owner.—Free Press.

FELTON MARKET.—Just received, a nice lot Dried Beef, Sugar Cured Hams, Bologna Sausage, Sweet Potatoes, Tomatoes, Peas, Peaches, Water Melons and Musk Melons. dtf-94.

The palm of superiority is awarded to Mrs. S. A. Allen for her Improved (new style) Hair Restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle), and a grateful public appreciates the very low price, One Dollar. Every Druggist sells it. 4w

Every family needs to keep in the house something that will cure headache, toothache, ague pains, lameness, bruises, cramps, and other kinds of pain and suffering, and what is there so good as Renne's Pain-Killing Magic Oil. dw.

A STARTLING TRUTH.—Thousands die annually from neglected coughs and colds, which soon ripen into consumption or other equally fatal diseases of the lungs; when, by the timely use of a single bottle of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, their lives could have been preserved to a green old age.

THE DIFFERENCE.—One of the chief points of difference between civilized and barbarous mankind is the attention given to the natural covering for the head—the one being carefully cut, cleansed, and brushed, and the other allowed to remain dirty and unkempt. The use of "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" will ensure all that could be desired by civilization or ignored by barbarism.—Boston Post. dw.
